Warsaw, 25 February 2017

SECOND CIRCULAR

The POLISH CENTRE OF MEDITERRANEAN ARCHAEOLOGY UNIVERSITY OF WARSAW is proud to host the Red Sea VIII Conference, devoted to natural resources and their economy: extraction, processing and subsequent trade that stood behind a flourishing crafts industry throughout the long history of the region.

Papers and posters are invited — for details of conference themes and panels, see the website redsea8.uw.edu.pl

EXTENDED DEADLINES

"Slow research" is what everybody needs, so we have risen to the challenge!

Registration deadline is extended to 30 March 2017.

But please register ASAP!

The deadline for abstracts has been extended to 30 April 2017.

The Scientific Committee will review the abstracts and return acceptance notices by 10 May 2017. Fees can be made to our account after that date.

Important note: Participants in the Red Sea VIII conference have FREE admittance to The Arabian Red Sea Route conference, held in Warsaw, at the Institute of Archaeology, on 3 July 2017 (day before the opening of the RS VIII) (also see the redsea8.uw.edu.pl website for details of this conference).

Those already participating in The Arabian Red Sea Route are welcome to join the RS VIII at a special rate. Please contact the Organizers.

Please note that invoices will be available only for fees paid beforehand to the conference account. Payment will be accepted in cash at registration, but no invoices will be issued at that time.

Make up your mind later

Remember that the Dinner, Events and Trips are optional and you can register for those even as late as on the Opening Day of the conference.

The full program should be on the website by end of March. However, for those wishing to plan their travel around the weekends, we would like to inform you that the sessions will be held during the week, the weekend of July 8–9 being set aside for daytrips and sightseeing.

Right now, just let us know if you are interested.
